Spring 1	Introduction to Music Sequencing	Learning aim A: Explore music sequencing techniques	Note input and editing Different methods to add notes to a track: adding notes with a mouse playing notes in with a MIDI keyboard steptime input – adding notes in musical steps importing MIDI material. Editing the properties of note events: duration note position pitch velocity. Copying and pasting notes and regions:	Note Input Editing notes Copy and Paste regions Looping Selecting instruments	Key words defined, descriptive writing and evaluation Counting beats in a bar and calculating note lengths and rhythms Paired/group work, listening to others perform, being an audience,	Written tsk Sequenced track

Spring 2	Introduction to Music Sequencing	Learning aim B: Use music sequencing software to create music	Intentions: • selecting instruments and sounds Intentions: • selecting sounds to fit the brief – software instruments, loops, samples • project settings – tempo, time signature. Recording and editing • recording MIDI – real time capture, step recording, clicking in • region editing – looping, copy and paste, resizing and trimming, time-stretching • quantising • event editing – note position, note length, note pitch, note velocity. Mixing The tracks should be mixed together to create a finished product. Some elements of the mixing process naturally occur during the sequencing process. Attention should be given to: • volume balance • stereo field – appropriate panning of instruments • effects – using insert effects, e.g. reverb, delay, chorus, distortion • the end product – bouncing down to stereo	 Selecting sounds/instruments Setting tempo MIDI Editing regions Quantising 	Key words defined, descriptive writing and evaluation, Counting beats in a bar and calculating note lengths and rhythms Paired/group work, listening to others perform, being an audience, social & cultural influences	Written tsk Sequenced track
Summer 1	Introduction to recording	Learning aim A: Plan a recording session	Equipment: Learners should specify the equipment required for a multi- tracked audio recording. Equipment may include: • computer • mixing desk • microphones suitable for a range of instruments and voices	Using equipment safely and effectively Microphone placement Recording techniques	Key words defined, descriptive writing and evaluation, Paired/group work, listening to others perform, being an audience, social and economic influences on instrumentation and music	 Final mix-down Written evaluation
